

The World Affairs Council of Charlotte is pleased to announce the Council Scholar Awards (Germany) for the 2010-2011 school year. The Council Scholar Program offers a unique opportunity for selected educators to Germany, Austria or Switzerland (Germany speaking region) and bring their experiences abroad home to their school community in North Carolina.

We are looking for internationally-minded individuals who are currently working to provide a global perspective in their classrooms. Applicants should have a desire to immerse themselves in an international topic/region and be enthusiastic about bringing their experiences home to their classroom, school and colleagues.

Applications must be received by 4pm on January 20th, 2011 (EXTENDED). They may be mailed or hand delivered to the Council. If you did not receive your application via email, you may also access the form online at our website, www.worldaffairscharlotte.org. Please do not attempt to fax or email your application. Your prompt attention is appreciated.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me by phone at (704) 687-7759 or e-mail cklopp@worldaffairscharlotte.org

Sincerely,

"Providing Leadership For Global Thinking"

Presents

THE 2010-2011
COUNCIL SCHOLAR
PROGRAM
GERMANY |
AUSTRIA |
SWITZERLAND
(German Speaking Region Only)

Dear Applicant:

The World Affairs Council of Charlotte is committed to the expansion of international education in area schools. The Council Scholar Program (Germany) is designed to annually reward a few outstanding teachers or administrators, grades K-12, in our community who have demonstrated a commitment to international education. The 2010-2011 school year marks the seventeenth year of the Council Scholar Program and the World Affairs Council of Charlotte would like to thank The German Culture and Language Foundation for their support of this program.

The Council Scholar Program not only gives the recipient visibility and recognition, but also provides rewarding educational experiences. The 2010-2011 Scholar will enjoy:

- Recognition at our 2011 World Citizen Award Dinner
- Invitations to special Council programs and dinner receptions
- Lifetime Council membership
- The opportunity to coordinate seminars and roundtable discussions with past scholars and experts for curriculum development, content enrichment, classroom resources and professional interaction
- A scholarship of up to $2500 for study abroad or international conference attendance

Not only is the program designed to honor exemplary educators, but it will also enhance the Scholars' international educational experiences in order to further impact their classrooms, schools and communities.

On behalf of the World Affairs Council of Charlotte, thank you for applying to be a Council Scholar. Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have in completing the process.

Sincerely,

REQUIREMENTS FOR A COUNCIL SCHOLAR - GERMANY

- The applicant must be applying to go to Germany, Austria or Switzerland (German speaking region only)
- The applicant must be a K-12 grade teacher or staff member with significant student contact in a Mecklenburg, Iredell, Cabarrus, Lincoln, Gaston or Union County school (public or independent).
- The applicant must be a full-time school employee in any subject/discipline.
- The number of applicants per school is unlimited.
- Attendance and a possible brief presentation at the World Citizen Award Dinner, as well as a commitment to attend Council programs are required of all recipients.
- The recipient will provide the Council with a one page written report of their travel experience.
- All nominees will have a clear idea of the impact and contributions they will make in their classroom, their school and in their community, and will be committed to promoting international education actively for the 2010-2011 school year.
- Funds provided are taxable. The IRS has rigidly defined scholarships as applying only to students in specific degree programs; therefore, our Scholar Award cannot be classified as a scholarship unless you use the money to complete a requirement in a degree program. Scholarships are the only form of award which are tax-free, so we must report your Scholar Award to the IRS as "other income." You will be responsible for declaring the Scholar Award as income.
- If you are chosen as a recipient of the award, all travel must be completed by August 31, 2011.
- Applicants from schools without large international programs will have special consideration
- Preference will be given to those applicants without extensive travel experience.
- Preference will also be given to those who will be significantly enhanced by their experience.
- Prior winners are not eligible to apply again.
